The Software is licensed under the following license terms:

The license applies to the Software's source and object code and comes with any rights that the copyright holders have in it (other than trademarks). You agree to this license by using, copying, distributing, or making a derivative work of the Software. You get the royalty free right to (subject to the requirements of this license):

- · Use the Software for any purpose;
- · Make derivative works of the Software;
- · Copy and distribute the Software or any derivative work of the Software.

If you distribute the Software or a derivative work of the Software, you must support public use of the Software by:

- · Prominently noting the date of any changes you make;
- · Leaving other people's copyright notices and warranty disclaimers in place;
- · Providing the source code, build scripts, installation scripts, and interface definitions in a form that is easy to get and best to modify;
- · Licensing it to everyone under this license, without adding further restrictions to the rights provided;
- · Conspicuously announcing that it is available under this license.

This license continues perpetually, except that your license rights end automatically if you do not abide by the terms of this license (your licensees get to keep their rights if they abide).

The above copyright notice and this license shall be included in all copies or substantial portions of the Software or derivative works of the Software.
